Ben focuses his practice on advising clients with regard to estate planning, wealth preservation, business succession planning, and trust administration. He is also experienced in estate administration, including the preparation and filing of Pennsylvania inheritance tax returns and federal estate tax returns.

Prior to his legal career, Ben worked as a business analyst and product manager in the financial services and technology industries. His experiences in finance, asset management, information technology, and software development allow him to bring additional perspectives to his practice.

Ben is a member of the Estate Planning Council of Pittsburgh.

Ben received his law degree, summa cum laude, from Wake Forest University School of Law. At Wake Forest, he was an editor on the Law Review and co-founded the Wake Forest Transactional Competition. Ben also graduated, magna cum laude, from Boston College, with a B.S. in business management. Ben has always been a leader – he was a board member for the B.C. Bands program, served as an editor for B.C.’s student newspaper, The Heights, and is an Eagle Scout.
